Want to get some hands-on experience in a specific area of business to complement your existing degree or career dreams?

This one-year programme has been designed to allow you to focus on a specific area of business that interests you most (e.g. Human Resource Management) or to develop your own personalised study pathway.

If you've got a degree in a particular area, this is a great chance to enhance it with some business skills to widen your career options.

Areas of focus include Business Transformation and Change, Event Management, Human Resource Management, Sales and Marketing, Strategic Management or Tourism Management.

And if you want to focus on Accounting, we have a specialised Graduate Diploma in Accounting.

You'll gain vital practical experience during a significant industry-based research project and have the chance to make connections and contacts before you even graduate!
